Meche Rosomer will share her experiences of growing up in Germany in the chaotic years immediately following the end of WWII. In the Forward of the book, Meche explains, "I wrote it down because I wanted to get it out of my head, to stop the nightmares and fears that have haunted me all my life. But I also wrote it to assure myself and my family that life is beautiful and worth living."

The Board strongly encourages members to attend the monthly meetings, which are integral to IWCNE. Luncheons promote friendship, introduce new members, provide information about club activities as well as furthering our mission of understanding the diversity of cultures in our country and throughout the world. It is also your opportunity to invite friends who can learn about the club and its various programs and projects.
