Fashions for Fun and Fancy 2015

This year's Fashion Show is already a fond memory! We had beautiful weather and the setting at the Stage Neck Inn was magnificent, as usual. We sold 69 tickets and our wonderful raffle prizes - all generously donated - generated $1700 for our charities! We do not have the bottom line yet but our final earning will come close to $4000. AND we had fun planning and enjoying this day. I would like to thank again the members of the Fashion Show Committee. The first experts to be consulted about this year's Fashion Show were the leaders of last year: Ellen O'Toole, Betty Williams and Rosa Hernandez. Without their help we would not have even started. As time went by, I realized everyone was willing to help in whatever way they could and that made my job easier. The ladies on my committee worked very hard on their given tasks and we enjoyed each other's company.

In alphabetical order: Jaye Anderton, Zoi Diamond, Marge Dunnington, Ellen Farber, Lynne Gass, Regina Godfrey, Michele Hovde, Ana Knowles, Marsha Miller, Mary Lee Pons, Barb Poulin, Micky Robinson and Maria Twomey-Thompson.

Special Thanks to members and friends who helped model Daisy Jane's fashions: Gwyneth Wykes, Nancy Jackson, Mary Lee Pons, Susan Heckaman, and Liliane McGee.

Lucille Gentsch, Fashion Show Chair

Note: The Fashion Show raffle prize of "Dinner for two at ONE DOCK PRIME in The Kennebunkport Inn" was donated by the KENNEBUNKPORT RESORT COLLECTION. Inadvertently, this was not printed in the Fashion Show Program.

Our Fundraising Potluck for July

Celebrate the Fourth of July on Saturday at the home of Marge and Glenn Dunnington in Kennebunk at 6 PM. Their home is right across from the beach so we are all welcome to stay and watch the fireworks! Children (free and may come earlier) are very welcome. Contact coordinator Lynne Gass fmi, what you might bring and directions/address. $10 donation per adult & your dish.

ACTIVITIES

LEONARD BERNSTEIN OPERA: TROUBLE IN TAHITI

PORTopera's Young Artists will present Bernstein's opera described as a "slice of American 1950's suburban life". It has a wonderful score which "echoes the sonic vernacular of the 50's".

When: Monday, July 20, 2015, at 7:30 pm

Where: The Temple in Ocean Park, Maine

How much: Tickets are $12

If you would like to go call Maria Twomey-Thompson at 207/282-1054. We can have dinner at Camp Ellis at 4:30pm OR just meet at The Temple at 7:00pm. Send a check and Maria will purchase your ticket ahead of time.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HOST A FRENCH STUDENT FOR THREE WEEKS IN AUGUST?

LEC (Loisirs Culturels a l'Etranger = Leisure, Education and Culture) is looking for host homes for French students. The dates are August 4 to August 24. There is a stipend for the host. Students bring their own spending money.

LEC Coordinator in Maine is Tom Blake 207/799-5723 or TEblake@aol.com. At this time there is one 19 year old girl and there are five boys ages 15 to 19 who are available. Tom is able to send you an application and forward bios of the students so you can see if you are a good fit.

FOR JULY

Cherie Asgeirsson, flute player, has performed in venues throughout the world, including Notre Dame in Paris and Saint Mark's in Venice, and as a soloist in Carnegie Hall with conductor and composer John Rutter. Cherie has also performed with the Three Irish Tenors and toured with Barry Manilow. Cherie performs regularly with the Thayer Symphony Orchestra and the Woburn City Band and is busy as a freelance musician. She is also in great demand performing with her daughter, Greta Asgeirsson, as a flute and harp duo. As a teacher, Cherie maintains a studio of select flute and piano students. Cherie's teachers have included Lois Schaefer of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and Bernard Goldberg of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. When Cherie is not performing music, she works as a registered dietitian at Carleton-Willard Village in Bedford, Massachusetts. She lives in Reading, MA with her husband, Kristjan, a freelance percussionist, their daughter, Greta, a harpist, their son, Jon, a trumpet player and singer, and their dog, Bela Bartok.

Juniper Woodwind Quartet was founded in 2013 by Bob and Bev Chadwick. The quartet performs music of many genres, from Baroque arrangements to contemporary popular tunes, and features several custom arrangements of well known Jazz and Pop standards, written by Bob Chadwick. Juniper Woodwind Quartet is available to perform for weddings, private parties, or other special occasions where audiences desire beautiful music to enhance their event. For more information, please visit chadwickww.com. Bassoonist Bob Chadwick plays Principal Bassoon for the Thayer Symphony Orchestra, as well as a working as a freelance woodwind performer for numerous ensembles from Big Bands to Musicals. He also owns a woodwind repair shop in Salem, MA.

Oboist Bev Chadwick enjoys performing in a variety of musical ensembles and has recently performed for productions of Pippin, Legally Blonde, and Cinderella. In addition to her musical pursuits, Bev enjoys sailing with her husband and renovating their 140 year old Victorian cottage in Salem, MA.

The Board strongly encourages members to attend the monthly meetings, which are integral to IWCNE. Luncheons promote friendship, introduce new members, provide information about club activities as well as furthering our mission of understanding the diversity of cultures in our country and throughout the world. It is also your opportunity to invite friends who can learn about the club and its various programs and projects.
