Message from the President

Our Strawberry Banke garden party last weekend was a bit more special than previous garden parties. The day was exceptionally beautiful - the food, delicious. It revived so many memories of once upon a time childhood "goodies" particularly the frosted ginger bread cupcakes. Watching a volunteer give us all tips on home canning brought back floods of memories of war time summers in Maine, canning freshly picked blueberries, tomatoes, as well as many other fruits and vegetable in the tiny kitchen of our summer cottage. It was a great afternoon - a wonderful garden party. Our sincerest thanks to Cynthia Raymond, Judy Totman, and all who helped.

Now we look forward to our last fund raisers of 2009. The Bowdoin Museum trip is completely sold out. Two pot luck suppers remain. Muriel's brunch at her cabin in the woods was terrific and delicious. Thank you Muriel.

The annual holiday fair cochaired by Rachel Gowen and Pat Dateo will be the grand finale. It's always a wonderful day. Come and enjoy it. We look forward to seeing you all there. ~Ellen O'toole

REMINDER: The ANNUAL Meeting will be at the November Luncheon this year and in future years. Please join us and meet your new board members.

Luncheon Speakers:

Today, Ellen Farber will be presenting a program about her trip to Budapest, Prague, and Vienna.

October 24: Adopting a Village: Catdang, Vietnam

In 1993, Charlie Miller first visited Catdang, Vietnam and was impressed by the villagers. Thus began his labor of love, The Children's Initiative. On October 24 at Warren's Lobster House, Charlie will share with us how he came to found this organization and how he has worked with the women in Catdang. He'll share the advancements they've made, the frustrations he's encountered, and his hope for the future.

Mark your calendars

You won't want to miss the eighth annual IWCNE craft/antique show on November 14, 2009 from 9-2 at the York Middle School, Organug Road, in York.

The Fair is one of our biggest fund raisers of the year with the proceeds from table rentals, food, and IWCNE projects going to charity.

Working at the Show as a volunteer would be a great help. Rachael needs people for the Green's Table and for the Bake Table. She also needs people to help in the kitchen and to serve food. Please let Rachael know gowenrr419@aol.com or call her at 603 431-2568 and give her a hand.
