The Ubiquitous Winston Churchill

An authority on Sir Winston Churchill, Robert Stevens, Principal of York High School, will be the speaker at our Saturday Luncheon, September 25th at the Beachmere in Ogunquit. Mr. Stevens, a former Principal of the Year and Educator of the Year, indicates that he has "consumed seventy-five biographies" of the famous wartime British leader. Mr. Stevens informs that there are "over 3,200 books on Churchill" and that new ones seem to come out every month. He reports that there are "fifteen tons of Churchill's personal papers" and also comments: "I have read all of his major works."

The President's Corner

Dear Friends,

It has been quite a year so far and I'd like to thank our member volunteers once again for their devoted service.

The volunteer is one with a heart so sincere

No task too large, no task too small

Who will help with anything at all.

Who will be there in the morning light

Or help in the dark of night

The volunteer is our extra hands

On whose future our organization stands

Never anyone so dear as an IWCNE volunteer.

It is the new year for some of us, a time when we look to the future for an even more meaningful selfless life. A life in which good deeds gain points in the spiritual world and charity goes an even longer way. I am very proud to look back on this year and see a group of volunteers who have given their utmost. I look forward to the future with a most prestigious organization and a group of fabulous fundraising gals.

Your in friendship, Ellen Sue Farber

Film: Me and Orson Welles

A US film, 107 minutes in length, in English with NO SUBTITLES! After convincing Orson Welles (Christian McKay) to give him a key role in the first Shakespeare play to run on Broadway, 17 year-old Richard (Zac Efron) finds himself on shaky ground when he clashes with the manipulative director over pretty assistant Sonja (Claire Danes). This adds up to more drama off stage than on for the Mercury Theatre's production of "Julius Caesar".

Directed by Richard Linklater in 2008, you'll find this recent film a lot of fun!

Light refreshments: call Barb Poulin at 207.337.2623 if you plan to attend.

Time to kick back and have fun! Come celebrate the harvest with authentic Bavarian food, drink and music. Darleen and Chad Chadwick are hosting a very special evening at their home in Rye, NH. Music, singing, dancing and a celebration of the fall season.

Darleen will plan the menu and ask for food contributions – simple, easy and healthy ethnic food. Those who cook can try an authentic recipe – and those that don't can open a can of sauerkraut or red cabbage! German wine/beer will be a welcome contribution.

Put on your best dirndl skirts and lederhosen (or whatever you'd like), dust off your dancing shoes and get that "Glee" voice in tune...it's going to be quite a party. We'll need bass, tenor, alto and soprano voices – in or out of tune!

The Board strongly encourages members to attend the monthly meetings, which are integral to IWCNE. Luncheons promote friendship, introduce new members, provide information about club activities as well as furthering our mission of understanding the diversity of cultures in our country and throughout the world. It is also your opportunity to invite friends who can learn about the club and its various programs and projects.

FROM THE FOUNDERS PEN

Philadelphia, September 11 to 16 at the Union League:

What a beautiful colonial city to host a WCI (Welcome Clubs International) Executive Board meeting. Priscilla Schwartz, newly appointed Secretary and I, a veteran on the Board for some 7 years, attended this five day event together with 9 other members including , WCI ambassador at Large from Rome and one of the European Area Coordinators from Hamburg. The daily Agenda with structured issues (including discussion of the 2012 International Conference to be held in Denver) was swiftly debated due to President Julia Banks efficiency and the Board ladies qualifications. A native of Philadelphia, Priscilla gave a 1/2 day tour of the many sights, including the Liberty Bell, chair used for the signing of the Declaration of Independence, horse drawn carriage ride and cracked crab luncheon.

A highlight was attending a tea with the International Club of Philadelphia. We also shared the city with President Obama, former President Clinton, Vice President Biden and former British PM, Tony Blair, who received the Medal of Freedom. There was a fair amount of security, including dogs in our Inn where Mr. Biden was speaking. All in all it was a very productive week to benefit all 23 WCI Clubs around the world.
