Message from the President

As most of you know, March, April, May, and part of June threw me a bit of a curve health wise. Thanks to excellent medical care during my hospital stay and equally excellent care at home, all went quite well and continues to go quite well.

During that time I was unable to do anything for or with our club, but our Board members worked together to keep everything under control and right on target. I am grateful to each and every one of you.

Special thanks to Lee Regan-Jacks for assuming the responsibilities of the President while finalizing fashion show details. More thanks to the fashion show committee who worked tirelessly to make the show a success.

Last- but most important- very special thanks to Charline Ludgate for making sure that Club members without computers received their newsletters during this period.

We have a dedicated, hard working, group of women on this –the 2009 Board, who, despite the obstacles that were both inherited and generated, continue to hold everything together and keep the IWCNE progressing.
