

IWCNE Vice President

Purpose of the Position

The Vice President is an Officer of the club and assumes the duties of the President when the President is unavailable.

Duties

The Vice President:

1. Supports the IWCNE President and Executive Board as requested.
2. Works on special projects as requested by the President.
3. Attends as many club events as possible; assists committees as requested by the President.
4. Attends monthly Executive Board meetings and gives reports as requested by the President.