PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am not surprised that we have over 40 members and guests attending today's luncheon. It's everyone's favorite meeting, when we present checks to our chosen charities from the previous year and hear about the great work they are doing. Seeds of Hope, the Travis Mills Foundation, New Generation, and end 68 Hours of Hunger serve very different groups of people, and they all make a difference in lives. As we hear their stories, I hope all of you feel excited about raising money in 2019 for other groups who are serving our community and need our help.

I last served as President in 2008 and look forward to serving this year with a very talented and hard working board. Before we had our first meeting, plans were already in place for traditional 2019 activities and creative ideas for new ones.

We welcomed many great new members in 2018, and I hope you bring us fresh ideas for activities and fundraising. We would love to have you serve or co-chair a committee, so please let us know where your interests lie.

May 2019 bring another successful year for IWCNE. Charline Ludgate
